Liability - Although every precaution will be exercised to protect the safety and comfort of those attending, any person attending this sale must do so at his own risk. Accidents at cattle sales are rare, but every person must assume that risk to himself. Neither the owners, auctioneers, clerks, the Tri-State Association, nor the sale manager can assume any liability. The sale manager was retained by the Tri-State Assoc. for specific tasks, promotional and clerical, and has nothing to do with the condition of the premises or the handling of the cattle. The purchase of each animal shall constitute a contract between buyer and seller of each lot. The sale manager can assume no liability for collection of accounts, fulfillment of guarantees, or errors in the health papers. Terms of the sale are cash. Settlements to be made with clerk immediately following the sale. All cattle become purchaser's risk as soon as bid off.

Lunch - will be served at Sale Barn.
